❖ 2013 Fan Activity Achievement (FAAn) Awards ❖

The 2013 Fan Activity Achievement Awards honor the best in fan writing, drawing, publishing and posting for the calendar year 2012. They are voted upon by the fanzine fans of the world and announced annually at the Corflu Banquet.

Andy Hooper is the Administrator of this year's Fan Activity Achievement Awards. He will tally votes and compile the results.

Vote by snail mail: Photocopies or equivalent ballots may be sent to: Andrew Hooper, 11032 30th Ave. NE, Seattle, WA 98125. Mailed votes must reach Andy by April 6, 2013.

Vote by email: Send your choices to fanmailaph@aol.com. No email votes will be accepted after midnight PST on April 6, 2013.

Rules

1. Only one ballot per person.

2. You don't have to vote in every category, or fill every space in every category.

3. A first place votes worth 5 points, a second place vote is worth 3 points, and a third place vote is worth 1 point. The highest point total after all ballots are counted is the winner in each category.

4. Anyone interested in science fiction fanzines is eligible to vote.

5. Votes must be received by the Administrator by the stated deadlines.

Category Definitions:

- A Genzine (General Interest Fanzine) is any fanzine with a significant amount of material by authors other than the editor, or with a multiplicity of editors.
- A Personal Fanzine is any fanzine in which the editor produces all or nearly all its content.
- Fan Writing is presented in a fannish context, e.g. fanzines, apas, fannish blogs, fan websites and social media.
- Fan Art is likewise presented in a fannish context, in fanzines and other forms of publication created by science fiction fans, in any media.
