Still Time to Sign Up for Fan Bowl I

Three four-fan teams are ready to roll in Fan Bowl I at Corflu Glitter. We need to have at least one more team, though, before we can enter negotiations for use of the facilities for Sunday afternoon. That's going to be a popular time, so it would help if we could lock up a fourth squad, even if we subsequently added a couple more teams.

Teams already in place are:

1. The Internationals – Frank Lunney, Graham Charnock, Pat Charnock and Dan Steffan.
2. The Dream Team – Rob Jackson, Mike Meara and two more TBA
3. The Gutter Snipers – Ross Chamberlain, Don Miller, John Hardin and Arnie Katz, led by manager Tee Cochran.

Registered free agents: Art Widner and Ken Forman,

The entry fee is $20, but the bowler with the highest single game, highest three-game series and lowest single-game score will get their entry fee back as well as some suitably fannish goodies.

You can sign up as part of a four-fan team or as an individual. Don't worry, if you haven't got three teammates yet; we'll help you find a team. If you'd like to participate, send me (crossfire4@cox.net) an email and you're registered.

One of this year's goals for the FAAn Awards is to widen both electronic Glitter #31, October 7, 2011, is the fanzine of Corflu Glitter, the 31st edition of what has become the World Trufandom Convention.

Glitter is available by request, but it may arrive unbidden, like a bad dream after eating too much at bedtime.

The Corflu Glitter Countdown

Hosting Corflu is something like a marathon if you're trying to do everything possible to make it enjoyable. From the point of view of attendees, Corflu feels more like a much-anticipated holiday or special occasion.

So, in the spirit of mainstream media warnings that "There are only 23 shopping days until Xmas," Glitter introduces the Corflu Glitter Countdown.

Cynics who say that it's also how many issues I'd have to publish to achieve a fanzine-long weekly schedule will be Ignored. (What if Glitter continued as a weekly fannish newszine?)

and hand copy distribution of the ballot. Every informed truant, not just Corflu members, should have the opportunity to vote, because a large turn-out is the best way to prevent bloc voting and cliques from warping the results too much.

Corflu Glitter is still looking for volunteers to help with both electronic and hard copy circulation of the ballot. If your hardcopy fanzine is going to hit the mails between November 1 and early February, we'd greatly appreciate you carrying the ballot.

Naturally, the entire Glitter emailing list will receive the ballot, but we would like to extend the ballot's reach by having others send it to their electronic lists, too. Posting on web sites would also be most welcome.

If you'd like to participate in this effort, contact 2012 Fan Activity Awards Administrator Andy Hooper or me (Arnie) at crossfire4@cox.net.

Will You Take the Home Run Challenge?

And Hooper and Rich Coad are ready to step up to the plate and compete in the Home Run Beanie at Corflu Glitter. (A Mundane group might stage a Home Run Derby, but fans know that the Beanie protects the fannish head bone from unfannish thoughts – and wild pitches.)

Are you ready to pit your slugging against the Seattle Strongboy and the BArea Basher at Big League Dreams in a replica baseball stadium? We need a minimum of eight participants before we can reserve a field

To sign up, email me (crossfire4@cox.net).
