Glitter is available by request, but it may arrive unbidden, like a dunning letter from a bank about that almost forgotten student loan.

Glitter is also available as a free download at: www.Corflu.org

Logo merchandise is available at www.cafepress.com/CorfluGlitter

Corflu Glitter Astounds Fandom!

Many Corflu committees have made grandiose promises. Some have even bestowed significant benefits upon fans who attended. Fanhistorically, Las Vegas Corflus have contributed their full share of such largesse.

Consequently, it is with great pride that Glitter reports the greatest boon any Corflu has ever given to any fans at any time. What's more, every fan, not just those with paid memberships in the con, will receive this amazing, and unprecedented, bounty! Best, and perhaps most incredibly of all, it comes at no extra cost.

Fandom's most precious commodity is, of course, time. We all have fanac we'd like to do, if only there were enough time. And it's a rare fan who hasn't, at least once, consigned a project to Real Soon Now territory.

Joyce Katz, Chairman of Corflu Glitter, has gone beyond the customary whining about time. Using the arcane powers vouchsafed to her as High Priestess of fandom, she has turned back time!

The evidence is right there, before your eyes, in the Corflu Countdown Square on this fanzine's front page. The one in Glitter #43 indicated that there were just 13 weeks left until Corflu Glitter. Without the High Priestess' benign intercession, that number would decrease to "12" in this issue.

Now, look at the actual Countdown Box. Suddenly, there are 15 weeks left in which to plan your Corflu Glitter excursion. That's a net gain of three weeks!

"I want to assure all Trufans that this manipulation of time is perfectly safe," Joyce declared. "No further action of any kind is required of any fan. No dates will change. Everything remains as it was. The change is undetectable."

It's a Corflu Miracle!

Near Sunset Station

Hours: Daily 10:00 am to 9:15 pm

Price: $5 - $12 per person

Service: Friendly & Efficient - Counter orders only - eat in or take out.

A fusion of Asian and American cuisines, the Hawaiian lunch plate (rice, macaroni salad and choice of one or two entrees) is filling and economical. The entrees offered are beef, chicken, pork and seafood. Marinated in a distinctive Hawaiian teriyaki BBQ sauce, the BBQ Beef and/or BBQ beef ribs are very good.

The macaroni salad is considered the best around. The sandwich combos (hamburgers, BBQ chicken or beef, mahi mahi and shrimp) come with fries and a coke for less than $6. For breakfast, you can order Portuguese sausage, egg & rice, or spam, egg & rice for $5. (BD) vice, has found a most worthy fan to share accommodations at the con. Steve Green, long-time British fan, active writer and publisher and TAFF winner, will be splitting the room, and costs, with Jim.

If you need a roommate, we may be able to help. Drop me (Arnie) an email at crossfire4@cox.net and tell me what you need.

The End Is Near

But next Friday will bring a new Glitter. Meanwhile, keep fanning! — Arnie
